

19th Annual Spring Conference

South Bend Area Genealogical Society

Saturday, March 25, 2017, 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

St. Joseph County Public Library
304 S Main St, South Bend, IN 46601

Featuring National Speaker Tina Beard

Courthouse Finds

Courthouses are great resources for personal family history. Probate files, chancery cases, land sales and lawsuits are just a handful of the types of records one can find in their local courthouse files. Join Tina for tip and tricks to identify and secure these records.

Mapping your Migrating Ancestors

Our ancestors traveled as much, if not more, than we do today. Explore what types of maps and property records exist for pinpointing your ancestor's whereabouts across the United States, from plat maps to Sanborn Fire Ins. maps to Google maps!

Vicky Rydzynski, Archivist/Records manager with the St. Joseph County Archives & Records Center, will also be presenting: "St. Joseph County Archives Records"

Admission is $15.00 at the door or $12.00 if you prepay.

Discount for 4H youth, Boys Scout and Girl Scout members.

Prepay via  PayPal at www.sbags.org/springconferencepay.htm

To prepay via check: Please make check payable to SBAGS and mail to:
